ALMA MATER

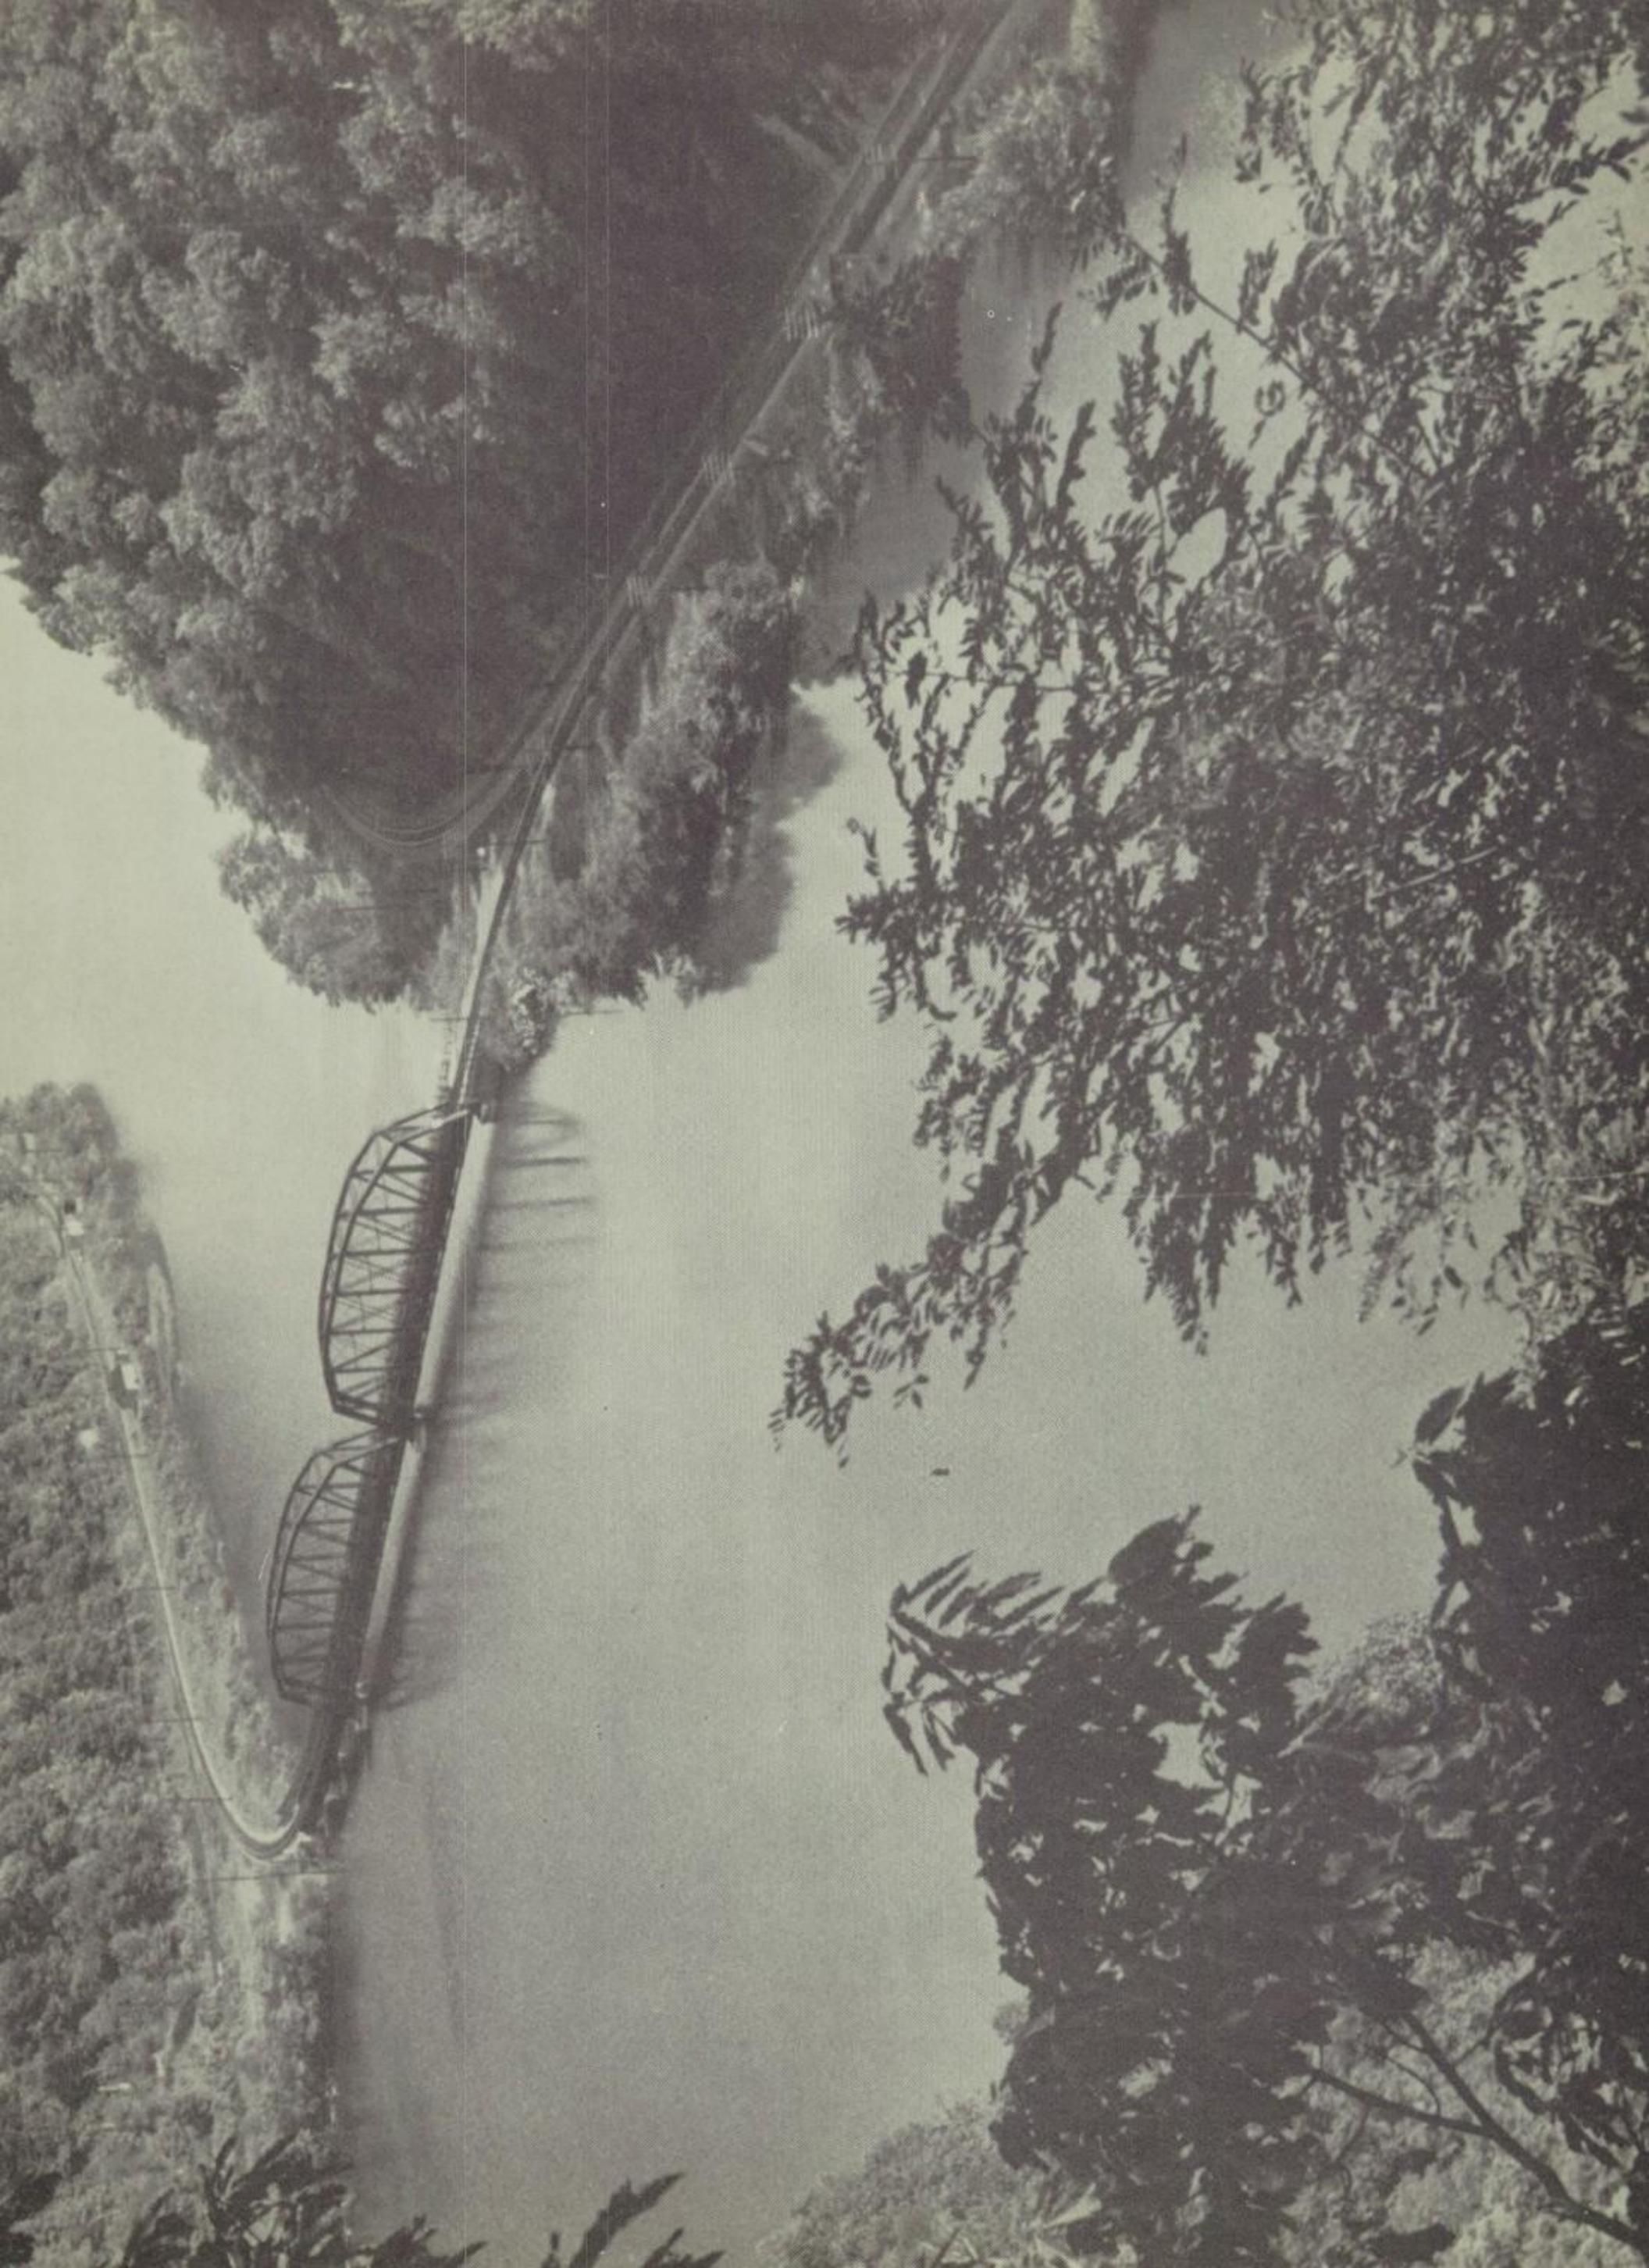

Between the lofty mountains
where the great Kanawha flows.
In a valley that is magic and the seed of wisdom grows.

Chorus

Hail we here Montgomery High School.
Hail we here the grey and blue.
Sing we now our joyous praises
pledging now ourselves to you.

Within our halls ring echos.
Ring the hopes and joys of youth.
Ever changing ever planning ever seeking for the truth.

She guides us ever forward on our way restless seas.
She has made us faithful leaders,
fighting for democracy.

Four years old.

"THE WEALTH
THE WISDOM

Miss Virginia E. Toney, who has been a teacher at Montgomery High School for fourteen years, received her Bachelor of Arts degree from West Virginia Institute of Technology and her Master of Arts degree from West Virginia University. The first Tri-Hi-Y Club was organized under her leadership and continues to be one of the most active in the school as she guides it through each succeeding year.

OF MANKIND IS

Love of teaching and a thorough knowledge of the many phases of social studies have caused Miss Toney to make a lasting impression upon the students. Her personal interest and affection for her students, her keen sense of humor, and her warm smile will be a special part of the memory of Montgomery High School.

In gratitude, the class of Nineteen Hundred Sixty-One, proudly yet humbly, dedicate their yearbook, The Chien Gris, to Miss Toney.

SENIORS

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Dear Diary,

It has been ten years tonight since I graduated from Montgomery High School. Being the private secretary to the President, I am kept rather busy and don't have much time for correspondence with any of the members of the '61 graduating class. But I have just returned from the reunion of the graduating class of 1961, and here is some news on what your old pals are doing.

George O'Brien is a successful businessman. In fact, he is so successful that he has already retired and now lives in Hawaii.

Bobby Carr is tied up with "Uncle Sam" for ten more years and then he can retire and take life easy.

Nutie Miller is a successful New York lawyer.

Joan Bowling has just recently cut her first recording with Elvis Presley.

Merrill Settle is working as a welder in the Chrysler Corporation in Detroit and is taking care of his mother.

Two of our girls are now in showbusiness--well, sort of, Brenda Aldridge is Fabian's new make-up artist and Sonja Jarrett is Elvis's make-up artist.

Patsy Williams feels more comfortable around money and lots of it--she is John D. Rockefeller's private secretary.

Andy Vickers is now the proud owner of Morris Drive.

Manfred Slack is a multi-millionaire and lives in Siam with his many wives.

Gleama Keller is Perry Mason's "right-arm-girl" in solving those puzzling mystery cases.

Wilma Caldwell is doing okay taking dictation from handsome Troy Donahue.

Dicky Smith is president of General Motors.

Skipper Woods is working at the Ford Garage as chief mechanic while his wife, Diana, helps out by working part-time as a typist.

Jean Miller is an airline stewardess for Capital Airlines and likes flying so well that she might take flying lessons.

Pat Dalporto is a private nurse for a very rich sweet lady--Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

Sharon Parsons and Joyce Linville are working with evangelistic groups and are traveling all over the world.

Leonard Washington is a technical engineer for the Appalachian Power Company at Point Pleasant.

Milton Black and Edward Cashwell are in the Navy and are aeronautical engineers.

Viola Ruth is working at Laird Memorial as an x-ray technician.

Pat Beaver, Fonda Cutts, and Jackie Sue Thompson are Dr. Salk's three most capable medical technologists.

Jimmy Curry is still playing around with numbers (but not cute little numbers); he is an accountant at the Montgomery National Bank.

Donald Counts and Darrell Sheppard are assistant accountants at the Merchants National Bank.

Richard Kozma, Sammy Williams, Dallas Hannah, and Jerry Miller don't see land very often. They are commanders on three of the Navy's largest battle ships.

Sandra Croyle is a chemist and making many startling new discoveries, but so far none of any great importance.

Ernie Alvis and Jackie Carroll are playing football for Syracuse.

Bobby Bayes is in Europe working as Bridget Bardot's personal advisor.

We have a hermit in the neighborhood--William Parsons.

Janice Marsico is teaching American history at Montgomery Junior High. She has taken Mrs. Buckholt's place after her retirement.

Mary Ann Johnson is living in Germany with her husband, Roger, and is working as a secretary there. She speaks German pretty well.

Wilma Myers is a secretary in New York and drives around in a shiny red Thunderbird.

Helen Mosley is a secretary in Cleveland.

After a long struggle playing football for Coach Perkins, Bobby Cooper has taken over that proud position.

Eddie and Anna are now married. Eddie has his own barber shop and sees Mr. Bragg often when he comes in for his haircuts.

Patty Sutton is a seamstress and is designing clothes in Paris.

Shellia is modeling bathing suits in Florida, while her husband, Larry, is president of Sunkist Orange Company.

Barbara Holdern now has some competition in hairstyling--Janet McKown has recently opened a beauty salon in Smithers.

Roger Sowards is teaching history at Montgomery High School. This is his first year for Mr. Hurley has just retired.

Howard Haines is now recording for Decca.

Flossie Rinehart is an elementary teacher in sunny California.

Barbara Sigler is now playing in a sandbox as a kindergarten teacher. Two of the little tots are her very own.

Betty Doyle and Ann Waddell are teachers at a high school in Brooklyn.

Yvonne Smith is an English teacher at Hampton College.

David Hawkes is an investigator for the FBI.

Denny Tench has gotten his degree in chemical engineering.

George Fisher is directing a small symphony orchestra in Philadelphia.

Ada Graham is working as Dr. Nancy Kelly's medical secretary.

Judith Hicks is a professional hair stylist in Hollywood.

James Washington is a commercial artist in Minnesota.

Sammy Argento has taken over his father's store and has expanded. He now owns a chain of Angelo's Markets.

Carolyn Roop lives in sunny Florida with her husband, Ernie.

Kay Spencer and J. J. Taylor are competing for the office of mayor of Longacre.

Donna Painter is happily married to Buddy Cunningham and lives in Washington, D.C.

Billy Buchannan, Jerry McCommack, Theophus Coles, Clifton Goard, Gene Carroll, and Darrell Boyd are now making the Air Force their career.

Gary Crane is in the Navy and plans to remain there.

Joann Taylor is a nurse and has her Mrs. degree.

Gloria Danbury has gotten her Mrs. degree and she and C.E. are living at East Bank.

Deanna Jarrett and Tanna Halsey are both nursing at John Hopkins Hospital.

Bobby Divita is a journalist for the New York Times.

Mark Lynch is happily married and has four children.

Ann Welch, Beddie Bostic, Mabel Coleman, and Nancy Glenn are serving "Uncle Sam" in the Waves.

Gene Samples is a mathematician at the Boston Math Company.

Shirley Bragg lives in the big house with all the windows at Crescent.

Wendell Goard is doing clerical work at the Acme Corporation.

Betty Brindson is a new addition to Montgomery's faculty as a guidance director.

Margaret Higgins lives in Texas on the M & G Ranch and owns more than a thousand horses. Wonder how she got that many?

→ Pat Buchanan has found Krushchev very interesting and she is one of the United States most important diplomats to Russia.

Wanda Comer is busy playing the role of a lovely hostess and wife in the Governor's mansion.

Mary Sue Self has taken over the title once held by one of the teachers of Montgomery ---the grouchy phys. ed. teacher.

→ Beverly Lively has finally learned to speak with a southern accent and lives in Va.

Sue Pennington and Sandra Hall are secretaries for the FBI.

Lona Hardy has hooked a very interesting job and a very interesting husband. She worked her way up until she married their chief pilot.

Pat Tucker, Judy Pinson, Joyce Petry, and Patty Ryan are all assistant secretaries to the President.

Carol Pauley, Annabelle Henry, Lois Darling, Barbara Kelly, and Helen Banks are all secretaries and prospective housewives.

Brenda Ash loves modeling so well that she married her photographer.

Phyllis Edwards is happily married to Chuck and has two darling twin girls. Irene Edwards is married, too, but has no children yet.

Kathy Rose and John Axtell has just announced their engagement. (Slow but sure!)

Brenda Miller has her own line of hilarious jokes and appears with Red Skeleton every Tuesday night.

Mary Fleming will someday be a sweet nurse to someone special.

Nurses are plentiful--take your choice. They are Donna Snider, Pat Spillman, Julia Lea, and Jeanette White.

Vicki Miles is a real comfort to all the teachers of Montgomery High School. She is a nurse at Spencer.

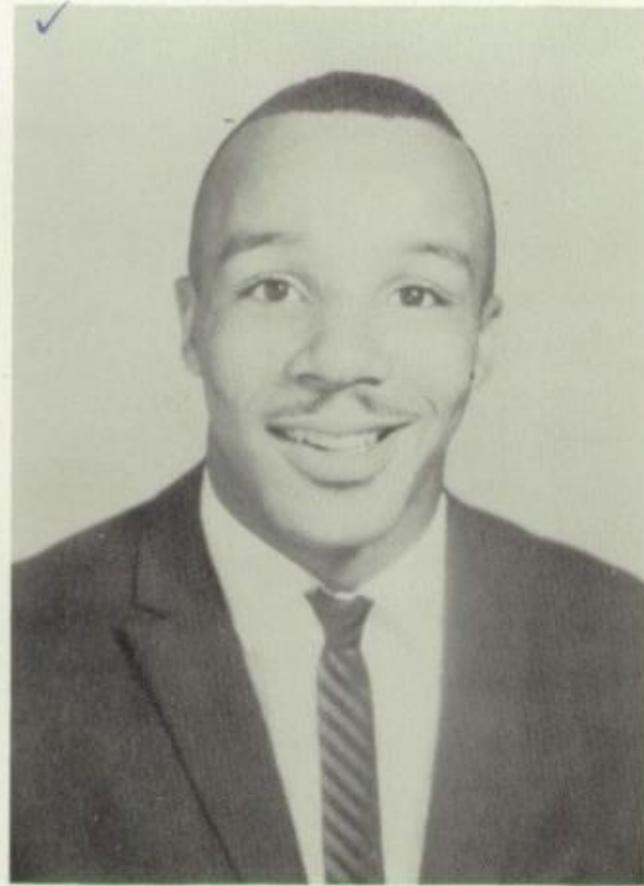

We all owe our success and happiness to the excellent guidance that we received at Montgomery High. The good old days we spent there will always be among our most cherished memories, but will always be remembered with a twinge of sadness.
